REIGN OF TERROR IN ST. PETERSBURG

Fifty Thousand Recruits for the Striking Army.

RAID ON A RIFLE FACTORY

All the Guns at the Sestrovezk Works Secured by Strikers—Moscow Joins in the Revolution and All Important Industries Stopped.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—"The Czar does not exist. No longer pray for liberty."

This was the message of Father Gopon to his followers last night. The killing of workmen, their wives and children in front of the winter palace of the Emperor has greatly embittered the middle class, who are in deep sympathy with the striking workmen.

Last night and this morning everyone eagerly awaited news from Moscow, which was yesterday the center of the excitement. St. Petersburg had by no means recovered from its bloody occurrences of the day before, but anxiety was felt for Moscow, because of its large number of troops and because it has fewer workmen than St. Petersburg.

Last night the city was quiet. The manufacturing districts were all dark and deserted. Every restaurant and amusement place was closed, and the only sound that was heard was the patter of the horses of the cavalrymen and the march of the soldiers.

The water supply was cut off, and a panic ensued. Tales that dynamite was in the possession of strikers and that it was their purpose to sack and burn the town had been in circulation. Reserve troops were called out to guard darkened portions of the city. The people still in the streets fled to their homes. Police officers visited every house and store, ordering all not to venture out at their peril, and to turn out the lights in their front windows. Shopkeepers and private house owners boarded or barred their windows and doors.

The strikers made a raid on the Sestrovesk Arms Works and secured all the guns in the factory.

Printers Join Strike.

Moscow, Jan. 24.—The gas works are idle and guarded by the troops, while the same conditions exist at the electric light works. Forty workmen this morning left off work at the Wyheidt Electric Works. The demands of the strikers are the same as those of their fellow-workmen in St. Petersburg. Printers have all struck, and as a result there will be no newspapers in Moscow today. There has been no fighting as yet, though the men are marching about the city, gathering recruits from factories and stores as they go.

Spreads to Kovno.

Kovno, Russia, Jan. 24.—The strike movement is growing and rioting has begun here. There is no serious damage as yet.

Wives and Children Escaping.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24, 12:30 p. m.—Thousands of strikers have assembled in Nevsky Prospect. The locality contains the homes of many of the fashionable element of the capital. The outgoing trains today are carrying the wives and children of many prominent citizens to places of safety.

Cut Man's Heart Out.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 24—One of the bloodiest and most sensational killings on record was committed at an early hour Sunday morning when John Gossett, a packer, killed John Doaner, another packer, at the army post. Saturday night Gossett missed his daughter, and suspecting Doaner, went to the latter's house, where he found her. With a large knife he began slashing Doaner, severing his head from his body, cutting out his heart and inflicting 25 other wounds. Gossett was turned over to the civil authorities for trial.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Representative Pearre, of Maryland, Stricken with Epilepsy.

Washington, Jan. 24.—When the house was called to order today a resolution was adopted urging the managers of the house in the Swayne impeachment case to employ a clerk and other assistants and to incur whatever expense which may be necessary in the preparation and conduct of the case.

Representative Pearre, of Maryland, was stricken with epilepsy on the floor of the house today, and was carried to the cloak room and attended by Dr. Godfrey Hunter, a member of the house from Kentucky.

When the senate met today Mr. Lodge (Mass.) presented the credentials of Winthrop Murray Crane, who was at once sworn in.

Mr. Fairbanks presented the credentials of Mr. Beveridge. Mr. Perkins (Califor.) presented the credentials of Mr. Lodge.

Smoot's Trial Resumed.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Senator Reed Smoot resumed his testimony in his own behalf today before the senate committee on privileges and elections, Judge Taylor continuing the cross-examination. Senator-elect George Sutherland, from Utah, who will succeed Senator Kearns, and former Governor A. L. Thomas, of Utah, both of whom are expected to testify in the case, were present.

FOUR DEATHS FROM WRECK.

Conductor and Brakeman Cut Caboose Loose and Escape.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 24.—A head-on collision between two freight trains, one a double-header, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, at Shawnee, Tenn., resulted in the death of four railroad men and the injury of six others, three of whom may die.

The dead:

James Klutz, fireman.

George Mooney, engineer.

Will Harris, fireman.

Brakeman Laughley.

Those believed to be fatally injured are.

William Terry, engineer; Will Killinger, conductor; L. P. LaRue, engineer.

John Eaton, conductor, and his brakeman saw that a collision was certain and escaped by cutting loose the caboose some distance from the spot where the trains came together.

Hazer's Victim Dies.

Lyons, Mich., Jan. 24.—Frantically waving his hands before his face, as if vainly trying to beat off an imaginary foe, Henry Johnson, the 19-year-old son of Daniel S. Johnson, a well-to-do farmer, living near this village, died. The young man was brought home from the State Agricultural college a few days ago, a raving maniac, and his parents attribute his death to hazing. The father of the boy says he believes his son was either hazed or hypnotized so that he became insane, and he will demand an investigation.

Depositors Get Money.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 24.—City court has decided that the receiver of the Commercial bank, of Bessemer, which was wrecked incident to the failure of the Bessemer Savings bank, from which its former president, T. J. Cornwell, took over $100,000, shall immediately pay over to the depositors in the former bank two-thirds of their deposits, the total sum on hand aggregating $21,000. The total deposits was $32,000.

Big Ranch for Cuba.

Sturgis, S. D., Jan. 24.—John D. Hale and a number of stockmen from Rapid City have gone to Cuba, intending to purchase a 22,000 acre tract of grazing land in the interior of the island for the purpose of starting a ranch and going into cattle raising. The land can be bought for less than $1 an acre and is capable of sustaining 80,000 head of cattle, and will be stocked with that number.

RUSSIAN SOLDIERS FIRE ON STRIKERS

Fifteen Hundred Men Said To Have Been Killed.

STRIKERS ARE DEFIANT AS EVER

Hospitals Filled With Mangled Victims Who Curse Russia and the Czar—Situation Is Very Grave—Women Killed by Troops.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—5:44 p. m.—Conflicts between the military and the public have been resumed.

On the Nevsky Prospect the troops are firing on the crowds.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—It is believed 1,500 people have been killed or wounded in Sunday's rioting, but all estimates must for the present be accepted with caution.

Popular rumors say that many thousands have fallen. The city is now quiet.

Troops are bivaucked around camp fires here and there in the streets.

Barricades erected on the island of Vassaliostrov late tonight were destroyed by troops almost immediately with a los sof 30 workmen killed.

The Vassaliostrov quarter tonight is in darkness, neither gas nor electricity being available. Shops are being pillaged and strikers are burning telegraph poles. Some firing is heard. It is reported that a body of strikers tried to reach Txarskoe Selo but were driven back by the troops after a sanguinary conflict.

Firing continues on the Vassiliostrov. It is rumored that the workmen there have seized a dynamite factory and also that 30,000 or 40,000 armed strikers from Kolpino, 16 miles distant are marching on o St. Petersburg.

Interior Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky at 11 o'clock this morning telegraphed orders to close the headquarters of the workmen's union. This was done by the workmen themselves, without police interference.

The troops, most of which had been withdrawn from the streets in the center of the city during the night, were reported during the forenoon to have assembled in considerable strength at the principal points.

Traffic across the bridges and the usual paths over the ice was interrupted. Street cars, including the electric lines, were running over the frozen Neva, sledges as well as heavy vehicles were circulating freely.

The strikers apparently finding it impossible to reach the center of the city in organized masses, were entering it singly or in small groups, traversing the streets sullenly without stopping to converse, or look at the windows as has been their custom.

Many of the principal shops are now closed. Those who are open keep up their window gratings.

Military in Possession of City.

The military had complete possession of the city this morning and quiet prevailed in all sections.

After the last volleys in the Vassiliostroff quarter at midnight, the men abandoned the few barricades which they held until that hour and retired. The word was passed around by the leaders to remain quiet for the present.

During the night a fine, damp snow fell, covering the ugly red stains and obliterating all traces of the conflict of yesterday, and with the break of day this morning except for the presence of the troops in the streets, the city had resumed its normal appearance. The shops had reopened and general traffic was partially resumed. The men spaared at work in several of the factories and mills including the works of the Russian Westinghouse company, but the managers in many cases told the men to remain away for a few days and that in the meantime they would receive their pay.

Much Anxiety Felt.

The people generally were nervous and apprehensive and kept in doors. The strikers looking weary and haggard after the excitement of yesterday, collected in sullen little groups in the vicinity of their various headquarters and yesterday's barricades awaiting the decision of their leaders, regarding the pla nof action. They were in an ugly mood and broke out in curses whenever soldiers marched by.

An early morning tour by the correspondent of the Associated Press showed that a cordon of troops barred the entrances of the city from the big industrial sections. The bridges were still held by the guards regiments, it being rather strange to see the officers of the imperial guards, the pets of the St. Petersburg drawing rooms, riding thoroughbreds and doing police duty in the streets around the winter palace. There was no trace of excitement. The big square which was filled with troops yesterday, was empty but inside the palace court beyond the sight of the passerby a regiment of dragoons and several companies of infantry were quartered.

The authorities have advised the factory owners not to admit the men as they had stolen a lot of dynamite bombs and might destroy property.

Emperor Is Prostrated.

Emperor Nicholas is completely prostrated by grief.

He is represented to be almost in a state of collapse over the situation. In the meantime everything awaits his decision. All the schools are closed. Every window in Grand Duke Sergius' St. Petersburg palace was broken by a mob during the night.

Yesterday's report that a portion of the track of the Warsaw and Baltic railroad has been torn up is confirmed.

The Northern express has not left the station.

Rumors were current that the strikers proposed to proclaim a general attack on property and a reign of anarchy, but the labor leaders denied this in the most vigorous terms. One of Father Gopon's lieutenants declared that the leaders of the strikers had resolved to preach the gospel of armed resistance and the overthrow of autocracy, but that it did not carry with it a threat of pillage or an attack on property. The police have not yet been able to locate Father Gopon though they are searching for him everywhere. His whereabouts is known only to half a dozen trusted lieutenants through whom he issues orders.

No newspapers have appeared since Friday, except the Official Messenger containing the government decrees, which is printed under military protection at the ocice of the state bank where the bank notes are issued. Official accounts of yesterday's scenes were posted on all the bulletin boards. Strikers who came to read spat upon them.

At Sevastopol the admiralty works as already cabled, are reported to be in flames.

There are continued rumors of dissatisfaction among the troops here. It is now reported in addition to the Moscow guard regiment, the Finland and Izmailosky regiments declined to obey orders to fire yesterday.

Pennsylvania Railroad and Employes Come to Terms.

THEY ISSUE JOINT STATEMENT

Philadelphia, Jan. 24.—After a conference of less than an hour's duration today between General Manager Atterbury of the Pennsylvania railroad and Grand Master Morrissey, vice Grand Master Lee and the board of adjustment of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Mr. Morrissey has announced that the differences between the company and the men have been amicably settled.

The following joint statement was issued by Mr. Atterbury and Mr. Morrissey:

Mr. Morrissey has accepted Mr. Atterbury's proposition of January 7 as amplified by the results of the conferences of the last few days in regard to brakemen assisting the firemen, both to go into effect Jan. 1, 1905.

Mr. Atterbury will, in addition, take and put into effect within a reasonable time such other measures of relief not only to the brakemen, but also to the firemen as have been discussed and offered by Mr. Atterbury and suggested by the committee.

MAN FALLS FIFTEEN STORIES.

His Head and Neck Literally Mashed into His Body.

Atlanta, Jan. 24.—A fall to death from the very crest of the lofty Candler building, now in the course of erection, 15 stories to the ground below, was the fate of Peter McQuarry, an iron worker, at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

McQuarry was crossing a plank which spanned the opening to the elevator shaft at the top of the building when he lost his balance and dropped head first down 15 stories, mashing his head to a pulp.

Not an obstacle was touched by the falling man and when he struck, the full impact of his long fall brought instantaneous death. His head and neck were literally mashed into his body.

The dead man was one of the iron workers. He was 28 years old and came to Atlanta from New York to take part in the building of Atlanta's latest skyscraper. He was living at 500 Whitehall street before the horrible accident, the first death recorded in the building of the skyscraper.

The dizzy height at which he was standing is believed to be the cause of his fall and as he started across and looked down lost his balance and toppled over.

Bank Cashier Kills Himself.

Columbus, O., Jan. 24.—Charles H. Housman, cashier of the East Side Savings bank, killed himself today. He was 40 years old and leaves a widow and three children, and the suicide is said to be due to business worry. A run has begun on the bank and the street is lined with men, women and children, demanding their money. The directors of the bank say it is solvent and that they will pay all depositors.

Operators Return to Work.

Fall River, Mass., Jan. 24.—Practically every cotton manufacturing concern in Fall River reported today that more operatives were at work than at any time since last July. A reduction of 12½ per cent in wages went into effect today at the six mills of the Fall River Iron Works company, manufacturers of print cloths. The cut was accepted by the 4,000 operatives.

NEW VISITORS ARE BEING BOOKED DAILY

Indications Are There Will Be Large Crowds at Conference.

ACCOMMODATIONS WANTED.

Secretary Bayer Says a Great Many Have Complied With Request Through The Sun, But More is Desired—People Must be Housed.

"I'll tell you, advertising is all right," remarked Secretary Ferdinand Bayer of the Florida Winter Bible Conference to The Sun reporter a day or two ago, in referring to the article in a recent issue of this paper appealing to those who had rooms and could accommodate visitors to the Conference to notify Mr. Bayer at once.

Secretary Bayer states that a great many complied with his request to inform him of accommodations, but that more are needed. "We are going to have a big crowd," he said, "and if we cannot find accommodations for them it will be a question of 'move on.' We would very much dislike to have people come here, fail to find accommodations, and go to some other point with the statement that Gainesville could not accommodate them."

Mr. Bayer is receiving dozens of letters daily inquiring for accommodations, rates, etc., and those having room should so inform him at the earliest possible moment, that he may answer these inquiries intelligently.

While the Conference and Chautauqua was well attended last year, indications are that the crowd the coming season will be much larger, as the affair has been widely advertised and the interest has been deep. The Conference will open Sunday, February 5th, and last for two weeks. It will be followed by a two-weeks' session of the Christian Workers' Institute, after which the Chautauqua will hold the boards for a couple of weeks, making six weeks of refined enjoyment to those who come. Exceedingly low rates have been granted upon these occasions from all points in Florida, with liberal extensions, which will no doubt attract a large crowd here.

OFF TO SOUTH FLORIDA.

Allen Goolsby and Two Boys Start on a Search for a New Home.

Allen Goolsby and his son, Walter, and grandson, Harris Malphurs, were in the city from Monteocha Tuesday.

This trio are starting out on a peculiar journey, for they do not know just what their destination will be. Mr. Goolsby recently sold his home and farm at Monteocha, and, possessed with a desire to cast his fortune further South, has gone on a prospecting tour. With a view to comfort he fitted up a covered wagon, filled it with bedding and other necessaries, and started out. He has no particular destination, but passed through the city with his two companions bound south. He states that the first locality he enters where he thinks he will be satisfied, he will "pitch camp and cast about." He is greatly interested in the vicinity of Wauchula, DeSoto county, however, and may eventually make that his southern terminal.

ARE MAKING PROGRESS.

Hospital Building Committee Are Working to Raise Subscriptions.

The building committee of the Alachua County and Gainesville Hospital Association, of which Dr. J. Harrison Hodges is chairman, is using every effort in the matter of raising funds by subscription for the proposed building, which will be a public charity hospital, modern in every respect. While a great many have subscribed liberally, there are others who have not shown the inclination by assisting in this worthy cause. It has been impossible for the committee to make a personal visit to everyone, and The Sun is requested to state that those desirous of contributing or becoming a member of the Association may secure full particulars upon application to the committee. Those who have contributed and who have not yet paid their subscriptions may remit to Dr. Benj. P. Richards, treasurer of the Association.

WASTING AWAY

It's the small but constant loss of flesh that indicates physical waste—the gradual slipping away of healthy flesh, pound by pound, which no ordinary food seems to restore. Scott's Emulsion will restore it. This Emulsion is the greatest flesh builder obtainable. Scott's Emulsion first stops the wasting—that's one gain. Then when it supplies new flesh and takes one back to normal strength and weight, that's another gain and a big one.

RED CROSS IN SORE STRAITS.

Captain of Japanese Cruiser Tells How Russians Sunk Ship.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 24.—The steamer Athenian, which arrived from the Orient, brought among her passengers Dr. Clampke, an eminent surgeon, who will offer his services to the Russian medical corps without success. He tells of such peculation and a sad state of hospital and Red Cross arrangements with the Russians. The Athenian brings news of the sinking of the Japanese cruiser Saatyen off Port Arthur. Comander Ukoda, second in command, who survived, gave the following narrative:

"The saiyet was struck by a mine and in two minutes listed to her starboard side and began going down fast. Captain Tajima remained on the bridge refusing the assistance and rejecting remonstrances of officers to take to the boats. When the vessel sank the captain and 13 sailors, together with 140 petty officers and men were engulfed in the waves.

As the Saiyen foundered the Russians poured a merciless fire on her from Katiosha and the rescue by Japanese warships was made difficult.

Women's Headaches

I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow

WEST FLORIDA LAND IS IN A MUDDLE

Over a Million Acres Tied Up by Recent Decision of Judge Locke.

WILL GO TO U. S. COURT

This Fertile Property Was Traded Under Spanish Rule to White Men by Indians Who Had Robbed Their Stores, Which Brings Complications.

The United States land office in this city has received instructions to permit no further entries of certain sections of land in Washington and Calhoun counties, between the Apalachicola and Choctawahatchie rivers, West Florida, pending decision of United States Supreme Court. This instruction came from the general land office at Washington, and was prompted by recent developments in the United States Court for the Southern District of Florida, Judge Locke presiding.

The tract comprises more than a million acres, and is among the most fertile of the lands of West Florida, producing abundant crops where cultivated.

The history of this land is an interesting one. It dates away back to 1792, and has a beginning which now proves of great importance to the people of this country, inasmuch as several thousand acres of the land has already been homesteaded under the law, the lands have been granted and the government will likely be in a quandary as to how to dispose of the question.

Judge Locke of the United States Court, Southern District of Florida, recently confirmed a private claim of John Forbes & Co. for these lands, which were secured through trades with the Indians and subsequent confirmation by the Spanish government, through the governor of West Florida.

The Forbes Purchase grew out of Indian robberies. The firm of Panton, Leslie & Co. of Pensacola, of whom John Forbes & Co. were the surviving partners and successors, established a branch store at Apalachy, on the Apalachicola River, which was robbed in 1792 and again in 1880 by a party of freebooting Indians under the leadership of the notorious William Augustus Bowlegs. Indian traders also contracted many and heavy debts with the store. In order to settle these claims the Indians (the Tallapoosas, Seminoles and Lower Greeks) joined in a sale of the lands in question to Forbes & Company, which sale was confirmed by the Spanish governor of West Florida.

Greatly in Demand.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At all druggists, 25c, guaranteed.

SATURDAY WILL POSITIVELY BE DR. GOLDSTEIN'S LAST DAY IN GAINESVILLE.

By Special Request Dr. Goldstein will be at the Brown House Parlors until and including Saturday, Jan. 28th, 1905—positively no longer. Those who desire to see him should do so at once.

Dr. G. Goldstein of Louisville, who is well known by the people of Gainesville and vicinity, has arrived in the city and will be located at the Brown House Parlors the balance of the present week. He will fit glasses to the eyes of those who need them.

He has made the study of optics a specialty, and anyone in need of glasses cannot do better than give him a call. Parents of children whose eyes are in any way affected should take them to Dr. Goldstein and have them examined. Too much care cannot be taken in this particular, as any neglect on the part of the parents may lead to most serious consequences in afterlife. If the eyes of the child need glasses the Doctor can determine it and adjust such glasses as will be the most apt to preserve and increase their strength. The Doctor has been giving satisfaction for many years, and we can recommend him as worthy the patronage of the public. Those suffering with their eyes should call on him, and if he doesn't give relief it will not cost them anything. He can adjust to any eyes and any age. A good glass rightly adjusted is a luxury to a person with failing sight; they can ill afford to do without. A glass imperfectly adjusted is worse than no glass.

Gain Strength for Work

In office and factory, shop, store or kitchen girls are at work all over this land, and, alas! far beyond their strength. Young women who work are especially liable to female ills. Too often the girl is the bread winner of the family and she must toil unremittingly, no matter if her back does ache, her limbs and abdomen throb with dull pain and dragging sensations, and dizzy spells make her utterly unfit for work. These are the sure signs of female irregularities which kill beauty and youth.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

builds health and strength for all women who work and are weary. It creates the vitality that makes work easy. From the thousands of grateful letters written by working girls to Mrs. Pinkham we quote the following:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: — I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and monthlies were irregular. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good.

Your medicine has made me well and strong, I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right.

I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your remedies. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer.

MISS ABBY F. BARROWS, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio.

Oh, if American girls who work would only realize that they have but one life to live, and make the most of their precious health and strength!

Mrs. Pinkham extends to every working girl who is in ill health a cordial invitation to write her for advice. Such letters are always kept strictly confidential, and from her vast experience Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help you—and may save your life.

MACHINERY IS EXPECTED.

As Soon as Machinery Arrives Work on Object Lesson Road Will Begin.

The government good roads machinery, which has been ordered to Gainesville to construct a mile of object lesson road, is expected daily, and as soon as this machinery arrives work will begin.

The route or section of road to be constructed has not yet been definitely decided upon, but it is believed that it will be on the North Gainesville and Paradise road, that being the thoroughfare needing the greatest attention at this time. Other hard roads have been constructed leading from Gainesville in various directions, but so far this road has been neglected, and it is more than likely that the mile will be used there.

It is not known who will be sent with this machinery, but Hon. Martin Dodge, director of the good roads department at Washington, and who is now in Florida, states that he would like to come here personally. Senator Dodge attended a good roads meeting in this city about four years ago, at which time he was treated so royally by our people that he has never forgotten them, and recently told Dr. T. F. Thomas, ex-chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, that he wanted to come here again, and felt that this would be a good opportunity.

No further information other than the matter would be considered, has been received from the government regarding the construction of the object lesson street, proposed by the City Council and the Gainesville Board of Trade, but it may be possible that the street will be constructed while the government machinery is here.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to publicly thank those who aided Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., in making a success of the supper and market booths at the opera house on the 20th inst., especially the non-members who assisted in the work and rendered such valuable service in serving the refreshments; also for the use of the opera house and various articles furnished by merchants, and all others who in any way contributed to the success of the entertainment. These friends can rest assured that their kindness will ever be remembered by our chapter collectively and individually.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

HAS RECEIVED ENGINE.

Manager Callison of Spring Park Farm Will Soon Get Busy.

Manager N. A. Callison of the Spring Park Stock Farm Company was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Callison came for the purpose of superintending the unloading and delivery of the new fifteen horse-power Fairbanks gasoline engine, which was ordered for use on the farm. The engine is a rotary of the latest and most modern pattern, and will be used to great advantage, since it is the purpose of the company to make all its own stock feed, etc.

Manager Callison states that he has received and is placing in position a fine grist mill. He has also received other modern machinery in the form of feed mills, cane mills, etc., and in a short time Spring Park Farm will be up-to-date in this respect.

The President of the largest express company in the United States is also senior senator from the most populous and richest State in the Union. He has for years been the acknowledged boss of his State and has wielded an influence second only to that of the President of the United States. He is presumed to represent and be chiefly concerned in the interests of his State and the country at large, but as a stockholder and president of the express company he has worked for the advantage of a private corporation and against the interests of the people of the United States, and the country at large has been taxed millions of dollars to support these express companies in rivalry with the United States postal establishment. If it were not for Senator Platt, with his powerful influence backing the express companies, we would long since have had a self-supporting postal establishment with letters costing one cent postage instead of two. Mr. Roosevelt knows this, the postmaster-general knows it, hundreds of thousands of American citizens know it and feel it; can it, shall it be continued? Reform is in the air; hoary bloated corruptionists must be pulled off like ticks from animals, even though the process involves capitation.

An army officer of the inauguration committee says that the weather will be too cold in Washington in March next to permit the quartering of soldiers in tents. "What! a soldier and afraid?" Can it be that the veterans from Pennsylvania, Maryland and elsewhere will turn their backs on a March wind, when they will be protected by tents with floors, carpets, sheet iron stoves, and other sybaritish military fixings? Their fathers in the Ozarks and Alleghenies fought winter campaigns and thought themselves fortunate if they could sleep on the windward side of a log or brush heap.

The House of Representatives, and the Senate in sympathy with them, have squarely turned their backs on their campaign promises of tariff reform. Of course nobody is surprised. The emptiness of platform and campaign promises of the Republican party is proverbial, and thousands of stand-patters are denouncing the President for compelling Congress to show its hands, and admits the deceitfulness of its promises before they have had time to grow cold. They consider it precipitation, clumsy tactics and poor politics.

"For a man who worked hard all day," says The New York Sun, "to come home and find his supper uncooked, his house cold, his children running the streets and his wife drunk on the floor, is a trifle exasperating." It is indeed, and if he allows himself the emotional relief of beating her it would seem a little rough to send him to the whipping post for it.

"The man who manufactures an adulterated food," says The Philadelphia Inquirer, "and sells it for what it is not, is a thief and a rascal and deserves the severest punishment that the law can give him." If Pennsylvania is starting out on reforms who knows but she may yet get around to her politicians.

If it pushes you to pay, remember it will pay you to push so you can pay.

THROW OFF THE DEBT.

Now is the most favorable time the farmers of the South ever had to get out of debt. If they are not frugal enough to do so now, they must expect to remain debt-ridden the balance of their time, so says an exchange. There are a few suggestions that seem proper in the present condition of the country.

Do not run any deeper in debt. Cultivate no land that will not pay. Employ no hands from which a profit may not be made. Raise everything, even to poultry, that may be needed for supplies. Try to spend less money than is made. If necessary wear old clothes, do without luxuries and stay at home until all debts are discharged. Get even with the world and be a free man, although you have to live on cornbread and fat meat and do without sugar and coffee. There is no trouble like debt, and there is no sacrifice which one should not try to make to throw it off. It is the "Old Man of the Sea" that sits astride the farmer with his ever ghastly grin, weighing him down, impairing all his strength, weakening his energies and beclouding his own life and the life of his family. Happiness and debt are incompatible. They cannot co-exist. The farmers of the South are more cosmopolitan than those of the North. They deal more with the commercial world. They are thrown into more intimate relations with men of enlarged views. There is a great proportion of men of high intellectual attainments engaged in Southern agriculture. Many of these are college-bred and find delight in the graces of literature and the treasures of science and sympathize with all schemes tending to the advancement of civilization. Many of them are public-spirited and deserve a better fate than to be forever worrying over a condition of things highly unfavorable to their material prosperity, and which can only be corrected by giving to their agricultural operations the same measure of common sense that is given to other duties.

It may be set down as an incontrovertible fact that no farmer or planter can do the best things at the best times if he is in debt. Not only this, but he should have a working capital at least equal to half the value of his real estate. With such a capital he can hold or sell his crop, buy the best labor at the lowest rates, secure the best implements of husbandry, preserve and increase the fertility of the soil and keep his buildings in repair.

A farmer so equipped moves forward in his work with a certainty of success, and to secure this equipment half of his landed estate should be sold, if necessary. There is many a planter in the South to whom the aphorism of Ovid may be applied:

Condemn the wrong and yet the wrong pursue."

President Roosevelt began last Thursday with a breakfast at eight to which he invited some newspaper men. During the morning he met and conferred with a delegation on the railroad bill, besides receiving the visits of senators and representatives who called. He entertained a distinguished musician at luncheon. He returned to his office where he remained until five, when he took a long horseback ride with Senator Lodge. He had a large party of dinner guests, including Whitelaw Reid, and in the evening he shook hands with between fifteen hundred and seventeen hundred persons at the diplomatic reception. After the reception he took supper with the receiving party. And Parson Wagner said President Roosevelt leads the "simple life."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

FLORIDA CRANBERRIES.

The following from The Ocala Banner will be of interest to our readers:

"John Farrell of Framingham, Mass., a former resident of Ocala, has received from the East Coast Railroad Company a very flattering and liberal offer of lands and other inducements to return to Florida and start an experimental farm for the cultivation of cranberries. Prior to the big freeze Mr. Farrell owned a large orange grove two miles east of Ocala on the Fort King road. The place was known as the "Bostonian settlement." Some of our older readers will doubtless remember him.

"Since his return to Massachusetts he has been giving his attention to the cultivation of cranberries and he believes that they can be profitably grown in Florida. He has made excellent arrangements with the East Coast railroad and will give employment to a large number of men, women and children, especially during the cranberry picking season."

Trading In Swaziland.

An English trader who invaded the wilds of Swaziland, South Africa, to establish a store for traffic with the natives thus describes the beginning of his merchandising: "I set up shop under the bucksail in the long grass, with a sackful of blankets, beads, jewsharps and tobacco, which we had carried. Within an hour or two I heard wild shouts, and, looking up from my work of cooking scones on a gridiron over the open fire, I saw half a dozen naked Swazi men war dancing down the slope of a hill which shut us in on the west side, brandishing assagais, long knives and knobkerries in wanton gayety and light heartedness. They had come in curiosity from their kraals near by. I exhibited my wares. They whistled through their teeth with surprised delight and danced off to return later with mealies, hens and sweet potatoes to offer in exchange. Such was the inauguration of our new store."

"Your account has been standing a long time, Mr. Dukey."

"Then give it a seat, my dear Shears."

"Very glad to, sir. Shall we make it a receipt?"

THE FELT SYSTEM IS A FINE THING

First Car Reached New York in Excellent Condition.

WAS FILLED WITH LETTUCE

The Product Was Crisp and Fine, and Commanded Ready Prices in the Market—Second Car Was Shipped Monday—System a Fine Success.

The first carload of truck by the felt car system, recently adopted by the Gainesville and Gulf Railroad, the Georgia Southern and Florida, the Southern, and Pennsylvania railroads, has been received in New York markets, and the contents were in first-class condition and realized good prices.

The first car left Fairfield Thursday night of the past week, and, in accordance with the promise made by the management of the system, reached New York early Monday morning, being a little more than three days en route. The car contained 425 baskets of lettuce, and the product upon its arrival at destination was bright, green and crisp. It did not show the effects of the average express shipment, but resembled more the transportation of goods under refrigerator system, being as fresh and crisp as if it had just been cut from the farm.

The felt system of shipping, while new on the Gainesville and Gulf and the connecting lines to New York, is by no means a new thing, hence is no experiment. The arrangement of the cars is one of absolute safety to vegetation or other perishable products. It was worked successfully on the Seaboard and other lines, but for some reason was abandoned. It saves the grower a great deal on the cost of transportation in the matter of refrigeration—something in the neighborhood of twenty-five cents a package, according to statistics.

W. P. Glover of Valdosta, Ga., and A. O. Dawson of Jacksonville, commercial agents of the Georgia Southern and Florida, are in this territory for a few days looking after the shipments.

BRADFORD COUNTY ROMANCE.

Two Popular Young People Drive Sixteen Miles to be United.

The story of a happy romance comes from Lake Butler, a progressive town of Bradford county, which terminated in the marriage Friday night of James Walker and Miss Florrie Douglass, two prominent young people of that section.

Miss Douglass, who has just turned the happy period of her sixteenth birthday, was evidently very deeply infatuated with her young lover, but there seemed to be some objection to the match; not because of any moral reasons, or for any reason that Mr. Walker was not worthy of his bride, however, but the objection it is understood was founded upon the youthfulness of the young lady.

But love will find a way. It is a true saying that love laughs at locksmiths, and notwithstanding the match had been forbidden, the young lady, by her shrewd manner, continued to meet the man of her choice, with the result that they finally decided to cast their matrimonial fortunes together.

On Friday evening Miss Douglass gave a party complimentary to her friends at the home of her brother, Lacy Douglass, near Lake Butler. The young lady being quite popular, there were a great many present, and while the evening was being pleasantly spent and all was gaiety, Mr. Walker secured a carriage, took the young lady in and drove rapidly to Starke, a distance of sixteen miles, where the much desired marriage ceremony was performed.

The young couple returned to Lake Butler the following day, were taken again into the threshold, and forgiven.

Mr. Walker is one of Lake Butler's most popular young men. He has been for some time employed by the Lake Butler Carriage Works, and stands very highly in the estimation of that concern. The bride is a daughter of W. W. Douglass, a prominent and successful farmer of the Lake Butler section.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former soldiers." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25, 50c and $1.00. DELEGATES ARRIVING FOR BIG CONVENTION

Two Thousand Interested People Will Be Present.

TEXAS DELEGATION ENROUTE

Many Plans Will Be Advanced for the Betterment of the Cotton Growers General Plan of Organization Will Be Mapped Out.

New Orleans, Jan. 24.—The number and character of today's arrivals for the cotton convention tomorrow indicate that the attendance will be large and representative, but with so many divergent elements of the same interest on the ground it is too early to forecast the probable results of the work. Half a dozen general plans which have been widely exploited are to be pressed upon the convention, but the arrival of delegates points to the submission also of many individual plans. The number of delegates coming from each of the cotton states has probably been exaggerated, but the probability is that there will be closed to 2,000 delegates and onlookers here, with more uniformity of representation of the states than was th case at Shreveport.

President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Planters association who called the convention was among the arrivals today. He was accompanied by President J. Pope Brown of the Georgia Railway commission. Mr. Jordan thought there would be a representation of 400 from his state. Following the arrival of Mr. Jordan, there was a conference to map out a general plan of organization and work for the convention in which President Jordan, President E. S. Peters, of the Southern Cotton Growers; Lieutenant Governor Jester, of Texas; John M. Parker, chairman of the local committee of arrangements and others participated.

All interests seem at present to be striving to secure a measure of Harmony in the final action in the hope that whatever plan is agreed on will be abided by throughout the cotton belt.

Texas Delegation Enroute.

Waco, Tex., Jan. 24.—Large contingents have left all the towns and cities in the cotton belt of Texas, for the Cotton Growers' convention to be held in New Orleans. Judge Eugene Williams, the originator of the Waco warehousing plan will be in attendance and this plan will be presented to the convention.

TO ENCOURAGE IMMIGRATION.

Bill Before Carolina Assembly to Establish Bureau.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 24.—A bill is before the legislature to establish a department of immigration, and a number of men from the northeastern part of the state are here to push the matter. They say it is ascertained that numbers of English and Scotch farmers desire to come here, owing to distressing conditions there.

There are more Scotch now in North Carolina than in any other state, and the ancestors of these having come over after the battle of Culloden in 1745.

The demand for the reopening of farms in the eastern part of the state and for farm labor of all kinds, is greater than ever before. The negroes in that section are leaving by thousands and going north.

Fired on Storekeeper.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 24.—W. D. Sturkie, a Fifth avenue storekeeper, had quite an unusual experience. A white man and negro waked him up at midnight saying that they wanted to buy something. Being up-stairs, he went to a window over them and heard them making threats, whereupon he quietly refused to come down or open the store. When he announced that fact one of the party fired a gun into the window, which Sturkie had left only a few seconds before. Sturkie was unhurt but the window was shattered. The police were notified but as yet have made no arrests.

Naval Officer Sails for Orient.

San Francisco, Jan. 24.—Lieutenant Commander Braisted is surgeon in the United States navy, is here awaiting the departure of the steamship Manchuria for Japan, whither he is going under instructions from Washington, as a special observer for the navy department. Surgeon Braisted, it is said, will watch the operations of the Japanese navy to which he expects to be assigned and will make a careful examination of all modern appliances used by the Japanese in rendering their hospitals sanitary.

LEAK SENDS SCHOONER DOWN.

Volunteer Was Loaded with Cotton from Wrecked Ship.

The Volunteer was loaded with cotton from the British steamship Andanai, wrecked on the Bahaman reefs, and was returning to this port. She sprung a leak so large that the pumps could not keep up with the inflow of water. The crew escaped in their boats and were picked up by the British steamship Penrith Castle and landed at Sand Key. The Volunteer was a sponging schooner of 24 tons burden and was manned by a crew of negro spongers.

POLICEMAN SHOOT BURGLAR.

Store in Savannah Entered by Four White Men.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 24.—Two arrests were made Sunday by the police of white men, supposed to have been implicated in the burglary of the Star Clothing company's store on Broughton street, at an early hour Sunday morning, but it is not believed now that they ahd any connection with it.

Four white men committed the burglary. They were surprised in the act by Policeman Halford, who shot one of the men down and then ran to call aid.

On his return he exchanged shots with the burglars who were escaping, supporting the wounded man. Bullets whizzed by the officer, but he escaped unhurt.

Some goods were carried away by the robers, but they got only 50 cents in cash.

Qualified His Statement.

She—To think that you once declared that you would love me as long as you lived! And now, although we have not been married a year, you care nothing at all about me! He—But, you see, when I told you I would love you as long as I lived I wasn't feeling very well, and I really didn't think I should live long!

KAISER WATCHES RUSSIA.

Do Not Think Riots Will Amount to a Revolution.

Berlin, Jan. 24.—Emperor William and the members of his entourage stayed up late last night receiving press and private telegrams from St Petersburg. The keenest interest prevails here whr Russia is probably better understood than anywhere else because of the geopraphical nearness and close business relationship.

While the outbreak is looked upon as one which proceeded from the hearts of the people, the foreign office does not believe that it presages a revolution because it lacks sufficient leadership, and is without adequate support of the educationalists throughout the empire.

The government control of the telegraphs and railroads, make the cooperation of the discontents impossible. At the time of the French revolution a man could walk from Bordeaux to Paris, but no one can walk from Odessa to St. Petersburg and partake in the events there. The official view is that although any friend of Russia must be sorrowful over the internal situation, the Russian government dare not drop the reins or the horses will run away. The government to avoid anarchy must act strin gently.

Pope Distressed Over Situation.

Rome, Jan. 24.—Reports received at the vatican from Russia say that notwithstanding the efforts of their bishops, the Catholics are excited and it is impossible to keep them from participating in popular moves, especially in Poland where even part of the lower clergy have joined the people. The pope was most distressed at the news contained in the latest dispatches communicated to him by the papal secretary Merry del Val and expressed the hope that the internal situation was not so black as depicted.

Railroad Over Coral Reefs.

Jacksonville, Jan. 24.—One of the most peculiar roadbeds in the world is about to be built in Florida. The Florida East Coast Railway company is about to be built in Florida. The line from its southern terminus, Miami to Key West, 136 miles. This extension will be both unique in its conception and novel in its proposed construction. The Florida East Coast railroad, as is well known, is the personal property of Henry M. Flagler, and is located on the eastern rim of the state of Florida, where it is for the greater part of its length in sight of the waers of the Atlantic ocean.

Fear of Asylum Causes Death.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 24.—The mental shock suffered by Mrs. Mary Dupheney when she received papers ordering her to appear in the probate court to show cause why she should not be pronounced insane, is said to have caused her death. Ten days ago she was suffering from pneumonia, and was taken to the Red Cross hospital. This ailment, the physician says, would not have proved fatal. But the serving of the papers, which were preparatory to sending her to an asylum, caused her death within a couple of hours.

This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. OLD LAWSUIT SETTLED.

Case Has Been in the North Carolina Courts Nearly Forty Years.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 24.—The oldest lawsuit in North Carolina is now being finally settled. It is that of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians against W. H. Thomas and others, involving a great many thousand acres of land, and also other interests. Thomas was for some years before the civil war the chief of the Eastern Band, and raised a legion of troops from among his Cherokees which was in the confederate service, being one of the North Carolina regiments.

In the roster the names of entire companies appear as Cherokees, the names being very strange, some part English and others entirely Indian.

The case began in 1867, in the federal court for the western North Carolina district, and since that date over 90 attorneys have been employed.

Every lawyer who was first employed has died. The last point is ending before the referees.

JEALOUS NEGRO KILLS MAN.

Tragedy Near Atlanta Occurred Early Sunday Morning.

Atlanta, Jan. 24.—Enraged with jealousy, Frank Tappy, a negro, shot and killed Cornelius Boe, another negro, Sunday morning about 11 o'clock on the Howell Mill road at Cox's crossroads, 8 miles from the city. A winchester was used, and the victim of Tappy's jealous rage fell dead in his tracks. Tappy fled after the shooting and up to a late hour last night he was still at large.

Both negroes work on a farm, and Tappy had accused Boe of paying improper attention to Tappy's wife. The men were not on friendly terms, and trouble between them had been experted.

Sunday morning Tappy secured his winchester and went from his home with the rifle on his shoulder. He met Boe on the road, and without a word shot him. The bullet took effect in the abdomen, and death was almost instantaneous.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Editor Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasantest remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

How Smith's Friend Got Through.

They were out in Kansas about 100 miles and wanted to reach Kansas City. One of them had a pass for John Smith and wife. He was John Smith all right, but his friend could hardly pass as Mrs. Smith. Although they were practically without funds, they boarded the train. "Take a seat in the rear of the car," said Smith to his friend.

Then Smith went forward and sat down by a young woman. Soon they were talking like old friends, and the subject of tickets was brought up by Smith. He asked her to let him see her ticket. It was not of the variety that requires the signature of the purchaser.

Smith examined it until the conductor came through, and then he handed up his pass and the ticket. Pointing to his friend behind, he said, "The extra ticket is for him." The scheme worked. To this day the young woman does not know that she was once Mrs. Smith for a short ride through Kansas.—Kansas City Times.

A Queer Food.

A most singular food is the larvae of a fly common in certain portions of California and known as ephydra. This insect is found in such vast quantities in Lake Mono, Cal., that it is washed upon the shores in vast windrows and can be collected by bushels. The water of Mono is very singular, seemingly very heavy and smooth, like oil, so much so that it resists ordinary wind and refuses to become ruffled. When the larvae begin to appear the Indians gather from far and near and scrape them up, place the wormlike creatures on cloths and racks in the sun and dry them, when they are beaten up and husked, looking then like rice. The Indians call the food koo-chah-bee, and many bushels are collected at his time. That larvae are nutritious is shown by the condition of the Indians, who soon grow fat on the rich diet. Many birds are attracted by the larvae and gorge themselves with the singular food.
